ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of October, 2006, upon consideration of the “letter motion” faxed by plaintiff to the attention of the court and dated October 12, 2006, see L.R. 5.2(c) (“Documents shall not be faxed to a judge without prior leave of court.”), in which plaintiff requests an order of court compelling discovery, and it appearing that discovery disputes in this matter are to be resolved “by way of telephone conference rather than through the filing of formal motions” (Doc. 33 ¶ 4(c)), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The request is DENIED without prejudice to plaintiff’s right to request a telephone conference to resolve the dispute.
2. Absent prior leave of court, the court will not accept correspondence seeking formal relief. See L.R. 5.2(c).¹
